DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a very plain two and one half story frame house. The main portion has two bays across the front and is covered by a gable roof. There is a smaller wing on the north side of the house toward the rear. A one story porch extends across the front of the house and is supported by Doric columns, with a plain ballustrade in between.

104 Mill Street

This house was built around 1920 by Edward L. Bramble, chief of the Cambridge Fire Department. Although it is not architecturally or historically significant in itself, it is another example of a middle-class residence in the post World War I era. The house was built over a spring, a fact that has caused the structure to slant in recent years.
